TO OUST ORT.

McKellup Claims That He Was Elected Chief of Police.

The Post's Special Service.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., May 14.—M. E. McKellup, who received a majority of votes in last November's election for Chief of Police, filed suit today in the Circuit Court to oust D. P. Ort, the present incumbent. Ort did not make the race, claiming that he was elected for four years instead of two.

The force of the foregoing "special" to The Cincinnati Post is found in the fact that there isn't a word of truth in it.

No suit of the character named, or any kind of a suit whatever, by or between the parties mentioned, has been filed in the Circuit Court, or any other Court, in this city.

Jo. Blackburn gets revenge.

And a good Republican still draws the salary as Postmaster at Carlisle.

A dispatch from Washington says the Senate Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads has decided to report adversely the nomination of Colonel T. J. Glenn as Postmaster at Carlisle.

This action was taken on the representation of Senator Blackburn that Glenn had been exceptionally active in opposition to him in the campaign last fall, and was therefore obnoxious to him.

It was also said that Senator Lindsey was opposed to the confirmation.

IT'S A GO!

Business Men's Excursions Will Run Into Maysville.

WORD FROM THE RAILROADS.

Committees Appointed to Arrange All Details and Attractions.

HOW THEY WILL SERVE.

An adjourned meeting of the Business Men was held at the Courthouse Thursday evening, Chairman Hechinger presiding.

Mr. R. L. Browning, of the Committee to confer with the L. and N. Railway, read a letter from the officials of that road agreeing to run a train between Paris and Maysville for $150.

Mr. W. W. Wikoff, from the Committee to confer with the C. and O., read a letter from Colonel C. B. Ryan, Assistant Passenger Agent, offering to co-operate with the merchants if Maysville will offer some attraction to draw people to the city.

Chairman Hechinger suggested that arrangements were being made to procure a couple of balteams to play on the excursion days.

Some of these present thought Friday week would not give time enough to thoroughly advertise the excursion.

Mr. Simon Rosenau suggested a committee of nine, who should make all necessary arrangements, with full power to decide on the date, attractions to be secured, and perfect all the details.

The gentlemen composing the Committee are Messrs. Hechinger, Chairman; R. L. Browning, John M. Hunt, E. A. Robinson, Simon Rosenau, J. Wesley Lee, John T. Martin, Thomas A. Davis, Ben T. Cox, John Duley, M. C. Russell, W. W. Wikoff, E. H. Benzel.

Mr. E. A. Robinson stated that he had just returned from a personal conference with Mr. Ryan of the C. and O., and that Mr. Ryan would give the merchants a rate on his regular trains, without exacting any guarantee whatever.

The above General Committee was then subdivided and assigned as follows:

On Attractions—Messrs. Simon Rosenau, Ben T. Cox, J. Wesley Lee.

On Advertising—David Hechinger, Thomas A. Davis, M. F. Marsh, John M. Hunt, John T. Martin.

On Railroads—E. A. Robinson, M. C. Russell, John Duley, W. W. Wikoff, E. H. Benzel.

The Business Men have pressed the button; the Committees will do the rest.

SERIOUS SICKNESS.

Mr. William S. Jackson's Studies Cut Short By Illness.

Mr. William S. Jackson, a most promising colored man, aged about 23 years, is seriously ill at the home of his mother on the Fleming pike.

Mr. Jackson formerly lived in the family of Mayor William H. Cox in this city, and his intelligent manner, sprightly disposition and gentlemanly deportment made him a great favorite.

Indeed, these striking elements in his character prompted Mr. Cox to do something for the benefit of the young man and to this end he arranged for sending him to Central Tennessee College at Nashville, an institution founded by the late Amos Shinkle, who was a benefactor to human kind.

With the assistance of Mr. Cox Mr. Jackson has been a student at this institution for the past five years, and was held in the highest esteem by the faculty.

His future was bright and promising, and it is a source of sincere regret to his benefactor and friends that it has been interrupted by an illness that will prevent him from resuming his place in the College, thus thwarting his earnest desire to do something for the betterment of his race.

The case of the John Shillito Co. vs. Richardson, taken up from Mason county, has been submitted in the Court of Appeals.

The case of the H. Feltman Co. vs. Chinn, taken up from Mason county, has been submitted in the Court of Appeals and ten days given appellee for filing a brief.

Miss Mary Ruggles, whose home is just over the Mason county line in Lewis, is the daughter of John Ruggles, the well-known fisherman. She measures 4 feet 10 inches in height, weighs 39 pounds, and is 35 years of age. She is too weak to walk, but has a good appetite.

The Railroad Commissioners have arranged to make the most extensive tour of the railroads in the state ever attempted. They will start Tuesday next, and travel over every road in Kentucky. The Railroad Companies have placed private cars at the disposal of the Commissioners, with buffets well filled with wines and edibles. Before starting on the tour the Commission will hold an important meeting at Lexington on Monday evening.

The Methodist Church of Winside, Neb., rented and planted to wheat sixty acres of land, the crop to be sold for the benefit of the Church, and the example has been followed by another Methodist Church at Wayne in the same state, the latter having rented a farm near the village, on which wheat, corn and garden truck will be grown to lift a debt of several hundred dollars on the Church property. Other Churches are expected to adopt the same plan.

The Detroit and Cleveland Steam Navigation Company's steamers are now running daily (except Sunday) between Detroit and Cleveland. When traveling East or West, North or South, try to arrange to take advantage of these luxurious steamers between Michigan and Ohio. If you are contemplating a summer outing, write A. A. Schantz, G. P. A., Detroit, Mich., for illustrated pamphlet, which gives full information of a trip to Mackinac via the Coast Line.

CASE AFFIRMED.

The Court of Appeals Sustains the Mason Circuit Court.

The case of Silas F. Fristoe vs. Franklin Laytham, taken up from this county, has been affirmed by the Court of Appeals, Judge Guffy rendering the opinion as follows:

Where the devisees under a will take a life estate with full power to dispose of the land at their death they become invested with a complete and perfect title, and as none of the devisees are complaining or seeking to interfere with appellant's enjoyment or possession of the land, the claim of imperfect title is not a valid one.
